

ATDU Participant Survey

Adopting a Resilient Mindset 1/31/2018

Please take a moment to let us know about the ATDU training session you just attended by answering five questions. When rating a question on a scale use 1 as not satisfied and 10 as totally satisfied.

1. How would you rate this program on a 1-10 scale? Average: 9

2. Should ATDU offer this program again? 100% Yes

If we do, would you recommend it to others? 100% Yes

What, if any, additional feedback or suggestions do you have about the program?

- Talk about resources for personality testing
- Great Content
- Would enjoy it to be longer with more information
- Appreciate the packet to take and review/reference later
- Possibly have participants take the social style test prior to class
- More tactical solutions and take aways
- A ton of information and great presenter. Could be a whole day, company-wide, and all positions.
- I think offering a training on this is important but would want more strategy focused and intensive
- Focus more on oppression and being more intersectional and realistic about how race, class, gender identity, etc impact this
- I would love to experience the whole day training
- Content was helpful

3. How would you rate the facilitator on a scale of 1-10? Average 9.76

What, if any, additional feedback or suggestions do you have about the facilitator?

- Personal
- Friendly
- Knowledgeable
- Very practiced and knowledgeable
- Easy to absorb
- Very organized, knowledgeable and dynamic

4. How would you rate the meeting room and location on a scale of 1-10? Average: 9.6

What, if any, additional feedback or suggestions do you have about the room or location?

- A little chilly
- Hard to find
- Great!

5. ATDU offers free professional development opportunities for employees of Central Iowa non-profit agencies. It is a community service of the Association for Talent Development and a way for the group's professional trainers to give back to individuals and organizations who give much to Central Iowans. The trainers volunteer time, content and training materials while various non-profit agencies donate the training space.

Is this a good idea? What could we do to make ATDU better? Please share your thoughts.
